Extension Education Association - (EEA) Clubs

EEA Clubs are an association that meets for informal education on home, family, community and country. Club members make new friends as they learn about nutrition, family life, home management and safety, money management, clothing, child development, community leadership, and other life skills. You'll get hands-on experience through workshops, tours, club meetings and fairs. Members are also involved in community service projects.

History of the TEEA

Milam County Extension Education Clubs are part of a statewide organization, Texas Extension Education Association, Inc. (TEEA). The Extension Education Association Club Program in Texas has undergone several name changes throughout the years.

In 1912, Mrs. Edna Trigg was appointed as the first Texas Home Demonstration Agent in Milam County. She first worked with farm girls, and later with their mothers, teaching them how to grow, prepare and can tomatoes. By 1914 and 1915 Tomato Clubs were organized and by 1917 Home Demonstration Clubs were holding regular meetings. The first Association meetings were reported in 1924. Home Demonstration Clubs changed names as follows:

- Extension Homemakers Clubs - in 1979
- Family and Community Education Clubs - in 1993
- Extension Education Association Clubs - in 2000.

Extension Education Club Creed

WE BELIEVE in the sanctity of the home.

WE BELIEVE the home is the place where love, faith, trust and devotion must be lived each day, where obedience and reverence grow, and where God is known.

WE BELIEVE those within its walls should be taught to work, to play, and to have compassion for those less fortunate.

WE BELIEVE sharing responsibilities is necessary and that from the fireside will come the citizens who will uphold the best ways of life.
